MEMORANDUM

To: President Coladipietro & Board of Trustees

From: Len Jaster, Chairman
Bloomingdale Planning and Zoning Commission

Date: April 7, 2021

Subject: Planning and Zoning Commission's Findings of Fact and Recommendations
D1 Training/Chris Hess ("Petitioner")
Special Use to allow for D1 Training, an indoor recreational facility.
400 W. Army Trail Road
PC Case No. 2021-102

I. PROJECT SUMMARY AND REQUESTED RELIEF

The Petitioner, D1 Training, is looking to locate D1 Training, an indoor athletic facility, in the former Avenue clothing store, in Bloomingdale Square Shopping Center. The facility is approximately 5,200 square feet and located in the tenant space immediately adjacent and to the east of Michaels. Pursuant to 11-8D(4) of the Village of Bloomingdale's Zoning Ordinance, an "indoor recreational facility" requires a special use. In addition to a special use request, when the shopping center was approved in 1989, specific provisions were written into the ordinance related to permitted uses within the center that the property would be subject to. In terms of the proposed use, Ordinance 89-07 established that only restaurant (without drive-throughs) and retail would be permitted in the center. Due to the fact that indoor recreational facilities are considered a "service" use by the Village's zoning code, it does not fall within the limitations of the approving ordinance, which requires that the uses be restricted to restaurant and retail. Therefore, an amendment to Ordinance 89-07 is also required to allow the use.

Based on the material submitted, D1 Training, was founded in 2001 in Nashville, Tennessee and was expanded into a franchise model in 2016. The company currently has 60 locations in over 20 states. Based on the submittal, the company was established for the purpose of providing indoor training services based on their 5-component instructional programs, designed by D1's National Head Speed and Strength Panel, used by competitive and elite athletes.

The proposed athletic facility will utilize 5,200 square feet, which consists of a large open turf area and about 1,000 square feet devoted to weights. When first entering, you would check in before continuing to the workout area. Just beyond the check-in area is the washrooms.

The Petitioner has indicated that it will have two shifts and maintain approximately two to three coaches per shift. In addition to the coaches, they will have a Front Desk Specialist, per shift, and a General Manager onsite. Based on the Petitioner's submittal and testimony at the public hearing, the projected hours of operation would be:

Monday through Friday – 5 a.m. to 9 p.m.

Based on the information presented by staff and the petitioner regarding the use, the Commission was comfortable with the request presented at the hearing.

Moved by Commissioner Flood, seconded by Commissioner Coleman to recommend in favor of the special use to allow for an indoor recreational facility (D1 Training Center), as well as an amendment to Ordinance No. 89-07, to allow for a service use (D1 Training Center) on the property commonly known as 400 W.
